

Issues in Secondary Education	Social, economic, and political forces that influence the development, organization, and purposes of secondary schools. Included approximately 15 hours of clinical experience.
Literacy in the Content Areas of Secondary Education	Materials and strategies which support literacy in the content areas. Included approximately 15 hours of clinical experience.
Instructional and Evaluative Methods in Secondary Education	Introduce and develop ability to plan, deliver, and evaluate standards-based instruction. Included approximately 50 hours of clinical experience.
Urban Education	Strategies for educating urban student with specific focus on Chicago Public Schools.
Social Foundations of Education	Education as a social process and function, social origins of contemporary educational problems. Included approximately 15 hours of clinical experience.
Educational Psychology	Application of psychology to education covering human learning in school settings, evaluation and measurement of learning outcomes, developmental factors and social factors of learning.
Adolescent Development	Psychosocial issues across developmental contexts for adolescents experiencing fundamental biological, cognitive and social changes.